AI — WHO DOES WHAT
every step, and whose job it is

THE CASE

Romeo and Juliet are found dead on the floor of a room. Around them: broken glass and a spreading puddle of water.

There is no sign of violence. No wounds, no weapon, no struggle. Nobody else is in the room, and the door was shut from the inside.

Yet something in this room killed them both, quietly, and the evidence is lying all around their bodies.

THE QUESTION

Who were Romeo and Juliet — and what killed them?

THE QUESTION + THREE HINTS

Open them one at a time. Stop the moment you have it — the last hint nearly gives it away.

THE QUESTION

Who were Romeo and Juliet — and what killed them?

HINT 1

Question your first picture of the victims. The names are famous lovers — but the story never said they were people.

HINT 2

Explain the water and the glass first. Where does a puddle with broken glass come from in a quiet room?

HINT 3

What kind of creature dies simply by being left on a dry floor, surrounded by the water it needs?

YOUR MOVE

Who were Romeo and Juliet – and what killed them?

Decide your answer now — say it out loud or drop it in the comments — before you turn this page. No going back.

THE REVEAL

THE ANSWER

Romeo and Juliet were goldfish. Their bowl was knocked over and smashed; out of the water, they suffocated on the floor.

Romeo and Juliet were two goldfish, kept in a glass bowl in the room. Something knocked the bowl from its stand — a tremor, a slammed door, a curious cat that slipped away — and it shattered on the floor.

The puddle is the bowl's water. The broken glass is the bowl. And the fish, flung onto the floor with nowhere to swim, died the way fish die out of water: quietly, with no violence at all. Every clue was the bowl — the names were the only disguise.

WHY IT WORKS

The scene is a perfect evidence set read with the wrong assumption. Glass plus water plus small bodies plus no wounds is a complete story the moment 'human' is deleted from it.

This is the lateral family at its purest: the facts never lie, and never even mislead — the listener's default picture does all the misleading for free.

THE TRAP + COMMENT ENGINEERING

THE TRAP, NAMED
Building a murder plot — poison in the water, a staged scene, an intruder who left no trace. The riddle says no violence and a shut room; believe it, and ask what the puddle is instead.

This riddle is built to split the comments into two camps. Seed both, then let them argue:

CAMP A SAYS
Team MURDER MYSTERY: 'Poisoned water, a staged scene, an intruder who slipped out. Two lovers, a classic crime.'

CAMP B SAYS
Team GOLDFISH: 'They were fish. The puddle is the bowl's water, the glass is the bowl — death by dry floor, no violence needed.'

PIN THIS COMMENT
Before the reveal: WHO were Romeo and Juliet? Answer that and the rest falls.

CHARACTER & STYLE LOCK

[VAULT-2D] STYLE LOCK — flat 2D storybook animation, deep-navy night palette with one lime accent, clean shapes, soft moonlight, no text inside the picture except where a prompt says so, vertical 9:16. Characters never change design between clips: generate the reference stills first, then build every clip from them.

LOCK
The victims are never shown close or in distress: in the present-day shots they are small, distant, still shapes only. The living fish appear only in the warm flashback, whole and peaceful.

LOCK
The bowl is always the same round glass bowl on the same wooden stand; its shards in the present match its shape in the flashback.

LOCK
No human figures appear in this video at all. The room, the stand and the shut door are the entire cast.

Never redesign a locked character mid-video. If a generation drifts, regenerate the still — never accept a near-match.

REFERENCE IMAGE PROMPTS

Generate these stills first, in this order, and check each one before any video clip is made.

REF 1
REF-ROOM: flat 2D storybook illustration, vertical 9:16, a quiet room with wooden floorboards, a tipped bowl stand against the wall and a shut door, dawn light through a window, no creatures or people, no text.

REF 2
REF-BOWL: flat 2D storybook illustration, vertical 9:16, a round glass fishbowl on a wooden stand with two small orange goldfish swimming inside, warm ordinary room light, no text.

REF 3
REF-SHARDS: flat 2D storybook illustration, vertical 9:16, curved broken glass shards and a shallow puddle of water on wooden floorboards, seen from a low angle, dawn light, no text.

REF 4
REF-FISH: two small orange goldfish alone on a plain warm background, flat 2D storybook style, side by side, gentle curved shapes, no bowl, no text.

VIDEO PROMPT 1 OF 6

PICTURE — what Flow builds
A quiet room at dawn: two small still shapes on a wooden floor beside the shards of a round glass bowl, water spreading in a slow puddle. The shapes stay small and distant — never shown close. Slow push-in.

NARRATION — generated inside this clip
"Romeo and Juliet are found dead on the floor. Around them: broken glass, and a puddle of water spreading across the boards."

Sound: Dawn quiet, a dripping tap of water.

One tiny action only. If the clip drifts, cut to the verified still and use a slow zoom instead.

VIDEO PROMPT 2 OF 6

PICTURE — what Flow builds
The camera drifts across the evidence: curved glass shards, the water's edge, an empty bowl stand tipped on its side against the wall.

NARRATION — generated inside this clip
"No wounds. No weapon. No sign of a struggle. Nobody else was in the room — and the door was shut from the inside."

Sound: Water creeping across wood.

One tiny action only. If the clip drifts, cut to the verified still and use a slow zoom instead.

VIDEO PROMPT 3 OF 6

PICTURE — what Flow builds
The shut door from inside, the latch down. The empty room breathes. Nothing has been disturbed beyond the bowl's fall.

NARRATION — generated inside this clip
"Something in that quiet room killed them both. And the evidence is lying all around the bodies."

Sound: A latch, a breath of wind.

One tiny action only. If the clip drifts, cut to the verified still and use a slow zoom instead.

VIDEO PROMPT 4 OF 6

PICTURE — what Flow builds
Freeze on the puddle and shards, perfectly still. Leave the lower third open for the pause.

NARRATION — generated inside this clip
"Who were Romeo and Juliet? Lock your theory in the comments before the reveal."

Sound: Silence, one drip.

One tiny action only. If the clip drifts, cut to the verified still and use a slow zoom instead.

VIDEO PROMPT 5 OF 6

PICTURE — what Flow builds
A gentle flashback in soft light: the round bowl on its stand, two orange fish circling peacefully inside it, the room warm and ordinary.

NARRATION — generated inside this clip
"Stop picturing two people. Picture two small bodies that lived in the water now soaking the floor."

Sound: Soft water sounds, a peaceful hum.

One tiny action only. If the clip drifts, cut to the verified still and use a slow zoom instead.

VIDEO PROMPT 6 OF 6

PICTURE — what Flow builds
The flashback fades back to the dawn room — the same puddle, the same shards — now readable at a glance. Quiet, a little sad, no drama.

NARRATION — generated inside this clip
"They were goldfish. The bowl fell and smashed — and fish cannot live on a dry floor. Follow for a new riddle every day."

Sound: The drip stops. Stillness.

One tiny action only. If the clip drifts, cut to the verified still and use a slow zoom instead.

AGENT MASTER PROMPT

Paste this whole prompt to the agent (Google Antigravity) with this book. It runs the video build end to end.

MASTER PROMPT

You are producing a 60-second vertical riddle video, 'ROMEO AND JULIET'. Use the story, hints and reveal in this book as the script — do not invent a different answer. Step 1: generate the reference stills from the Reference Image Prompts page, in order, and check each against the Character & Style Lock. Step 2: build the six clips in Google Flow, one per Video Prompt page, using Frames-to-Video from the checked stills, one tiny action per clip, narration generated inside each clip using the locked voice. Step 3: assemble the clips in order 1-6, keep the question on screen until the reveal clip, captions in the series style, no dead air. Step 4: run the Edit Checklist page and fix every failure before export. Deliver a 1080x1920 MP4.

VOICE LOCK — one warm American male narrator, 30-35, calm and confident, slightly amused at the question beats, dead serious at the reveal. Same voice, same pace, every clip. The narration is generated INSIDE each Flow clip; listen-check every clip and regenerate only failures.

NARRATION SCRIPT

Six lines, about ten seconds each — sixty seconds in total. Record or generate them exactly as written.

THE THUMBNAIL

THE IDEA

The smashed bowl and spreading puddle in dawn light, two tiny orange shapes just visible. Edit-drawn text: 'NO VIOLENCE. BOTH DEAD.'

IMAGE PROMPT

Flat 2D storybook illustration, vertical 9:16: a smashed round glass fishbowl on a wooden floor with water spreading in a puddle and two tiny orange goldfish shapes beside the shards, dawn light, quiet and mysterious, the top third of the frame left empty for title text, no text in the image.

Rules: the question, never the answer. Three words or fewer of big text, drawn in editing — generated lettering garbles. Check it at profile-picture size before posting.

EDIT CHECKLIST

Nothing posts until every line passes.

CHECK
Frame-check every beat: characters match the lock, no drift, no warped hands or faces.

CHECK
Every number and word on screen is drawn in editing and read back — generated text is never trusted.

CHECK
The question stays on screen until the reveal beat; the answer never appears early — not in a caption, not in a frame.

CHECK
Listen to the full cut: one voice throughout, no dead air, no clip where the narration went missing.

CHECK
The reveal lands in the final seconds; the last frame carries the follow prompt.

CHECK
Thumbnail checked small; title and caption lead with the question, never the answer.

AI — WHO DOES WHAT

THE AGENT (Antigravity)
Reads this book, plans the shots, writes the generation queue, assembles the edit, runs the checklist.

GOOGLE FLOW
Generates the reference stills, then the six clips with the narration inside each clip.

THE EDITOR (you, or the agent)
Draws all on-screen text and numbers, sets captions, checks every frame and every second of audio.

THE CHANNEL
Posts with the title, caption and pinned comment from the Posting Copy page — question first, answer never.

Part 2 idea: The mirror scene: a character named Hamlet is found alive and well beside a toppled tank. Let the comments decide what Hamlet must be — and what saved him — before Part 2.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

One riddle, taken seriously: a verified answer, a locked visual style, and the complete route from page to posted video — script, narration, image prompts, video prompts, thumbnail and posting copy, all in one pack.

OWNERSHIP
This book — its text, structure and design — is owned by OTT TITANS. Reading or downloading it grants you the right to enjoy it and to produce your own version of the riddle video on your own channels. It never transfers ownership of the book.

The riddle itself is a classic that has travelled for years. This pack — its words, structure and production system — is the original work.

CASE CLOSED

Romeo and Juliet were goldfish. Their bowl was knocked over and smashed; out of the water, they suffocated on the floor.

A new riddle lands every day. Solve the next one before the reveal.
